

PRESS RELEASE

Brisbane, Queensland, Thursday 11 February 2009

MEETINGS WITH MINISTERS AND OFFICIALS OF THE RECENTLY ELECTED RAJASTHAN GOVERNMENT

Following the Congress Party victory in the recent Rajasthan State Election, our senior staff members in India have had the opportunity of meeting with a number of Ministers and bureaucrats in the new administration.

From these meetings it would appear that we may be able to enter a fresh era of relationship-building. Both the Tribal Minister and the Secretary of Mines have indicated they are pro-development in tribal areas and have said they will help our cause.

The Chief Minister, Hon Ashok Gehlot, has still to appoint his full Ministry, including a new Mines Minister. Once this is completed, we will be making strong representations for the development of the Bhukia deposit.

Meanwhile we have requested a meeting with the Chief Minister and are awaiting a positive response.
